NURSING EDUCATION

NLN National League
for Nursing

Giving Through Teaching

How Nurse Educators Are Changing the World

Co-published with National League for Nursing;

Joyce Fitzpatrick, PhD, RN, FAAN,

Cathleen Shultz, PhD, RN, CNE, FAAN,

Tonia Aiken, JD, RN

This book celebrates the remarkable stories of nurse educators from around the globe. The volume editors have gathered an extensive and compelling body of stories from more than 70 nurse educators, detailing their professional and personal experiences—their goals, challenges, and tremendous breakthroughs in the field.

A major component of the book is to profile the international work of US educators. In doing so, the volume showcases the exciting diversity of the nursing profession itself. This collection of stories will quickly become an inspiration for nurse educators everywhere.

Key topics include:

- Disaster nursing, including stories by nurses working during Hurricane Katrina, in Iraq, and other disaster-stricken areas
- Global- and US-based education partnerships, with stories of nurses working to improve schools, hospitals, and communities around the world
- Nurse philanthropy and the stories of nurses' personal philanthropic and fundraising initiatives

June 2010 · 262 pp · Softcover · 978-0-8261-1862-2 · $50.00

Pathways to a Nursing Education Career

Judith A. Halstead, DNS, RN,

Betsy Frank, PhD, RN

Written by two recognized national leaders in nursing education, Pathways to a Nursing Education Career is a vital resource for novice nurse educators and graduate students who are beginning careers in nursing education.

This text, written in a conversational tone, helps readers through the challenging and overwhelming transition from a nursing practice role to a nursing faculty role. It draws upon the authors' own experiences to identify strategies for transition and to help readers grow in their new nurse educator role.

Key topics include:

- An explanation of the unique characteristics of each type of educational institution
- Content that is appropriate for nursing faculty in any academic setting, including community, liberal arts, and comprehensive or research universities
- Case studies that illustrate the variety and challenges of new faculty roles
- Reflective questions called "Think Abouts" that support reflective thinking

Philosophy of Science for Nursing Practice Concepts and Application

Michael D. Dahnke, PhD, H. Michael Dreher, PhD, RN

This groundbreaking text explores the philosophy of science, focusing specifically on nursing and the new and emerging role of the doctor of nursing practice.

This text traces the evolution of nursing science through the social, political, and historical prism through which nursing has evolved. It also discusses practice knowledge as an emerging epistemology for nursing, disputed concepts of nursing knowledge, and the education of contemporary advance practice nurses.

November 2010 · 256 pp · Softcover · 978-0-8261-0554-7 · $65.00

Role Development for Doctoral Advanced Nursing Practice

H. Michael Dreher, PhD, RN,
Mary Ellen Smith Glasgow, PhD, RN, CS, Editors

Useful as both a graduate textbook and a professional resource, this guide explores the historical and evolving role of the doctorally-prepared Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN). It presents positions and counter-positions from a variety of DNP educators and leaders, that represent a diverse range of current views on the DNP role and the diverse “ideals” of what the role of the doctoral-prepared APRN should be. This is the “must-have” text for use in all DNP role development courses and courses covering contemporary DNP degree issues.

Key features:

- Includes commentary from well-known DNP educators and leaders
- Provides stimulating and groundbreaking discussions on education of the DNP, the core competencies, and the unfolding DNP role development
- Defines the four basic roles of the DNP graduate

Spirituality in Nursing The Challenges of Complexity, Third Edition

Barbara Barnum, RN, PhD

- Can nurses be expected to deliver spiritual care?
- Should nursing claim healing as part of its mission?
- Should spiritual care be taught in nursing education?

Exploring these questions and more, this new edition provides a wealth of insight into current challenges presented to both practicing nurses and students. In her thought-provoking exploration of this controversial topic, Dr. Barnum traces nursing's involvement with spirituality from its historical ties with religion to the current interest in new age and alternative health methods. Key topics include the distinction between spirituality and religion, spirituality and research, humanism, and death and dying.

July 2010 · 196 pp · Softcover · 978-0-8261-0583-7 · $50.00

Daphne Stannard, RN, PhD, CCRN

This Second Edition of a classic text in nursing education describes the major domains of nursing practice in acute, critical, and perioperative care within today's complex and technologically driven healthcare industry.

Revised and updated to reflect current pedagogy and practice needs, this text includes:

- Examples that foster clinical imagination, reflection, and lifelong learning
- New interviews from acute care, critical care, and perioperative nurses
- Guidance for teaching/mentoring nurses how to clinically reason

November 2010 · 588 pp · Softcover · 978-0-8261-0573-8 · $75.00

PROFESSIONAL ISSUES AND TRENDS IN NURSING

Problem Solving for Better Health

A Global Perspective

Co-published with the Dreyfus Health Foundation

Barry Smith, MD, PhD, Pamela Hoyt, PhD, RN, FAAN,

Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, RN, FAAN, Editors

This book outlines today's global health challenges and argues that current approaches to healthcare are inadequate. Drawing on in-depth field experiences from international health experts and policy makers, social entrepreneurs, and laypeople, Problem Solving for Better Health is a call for action and a renewed commitment to changing our approach to health and healthcare.

It provides perspectives and tools that have been proven to benefit not only nursing and medical students, but also students from other health disciplines (international health and public health policy), as well as the broader community.

October 2010 • 352 pp • Hardcover • 978-0-8261-0468-7 • $70.00

Nursing, Caring, and Complexity Science

For Human-Environment Well Being

Marilyn Ray, RN, PhD, CTN, Marian Turkel, RN, PhD, NEA-BC, Editors

This book explores nursing and complexity science, and investigates how they relate in research, education, and practice. Written by experts in nursing, sociology, informatics, and mathematics, it examines the best methods for using complex systems.

Each chapter includes a response written by a nursing scholar, administrator, or practitioner, focusing on concepts relevant to the complex systems seen in nursing. One of the first texts of its kind, it demonstrates the potential of complex systems perspectives to understand and improve nursing and healthcare research, education, and practice.

When Disaster Strikes, 1878-2010

Barbra Mann Wall, PhD, Arlene W. Keeling, PhD, Editors

This book examines how nurses have responded to natural and man-made disasters in the US and Canada over the previous and current centuries. It analyzes how issues of race, class, and gender influenced the ways nurses and other health care professionals responded to these disasters.

Key topics include:

- Commentary on nursing's response to key disasters
- Important disaster episodes in the development of professional nursing
- Perspectives on disaster relief for nursing and women's issues research

GENERAL INTEREST

Florence Nightingale's Notes on Nursing and Notes on Nursing for the Labouring Classes

Commemorative Edition with Historical Commentary

Victor Skretkowicz, PhD, Editor

"...nurses and others will recognize this extraordinary woman whose dedication and determination helped to shape the course of modern global healthcare and holistic and integral relationship-centered care."

—Barbara Dossey, PhD, RN, AHN-BC, FAAN
International Co-Director, Nightingale Initiative for Global Health

This commemorative volume is beautifully bound with gilt edges and is a perfect gift for any nurse and a must-have for all nursing libraries and researchers. It includes Dr. Skretkowicz's own expert commentary and annotations, and presents some of Nightingale's original passages that remained unpublished for more than 100 years.

Care Management Journals

Journal of Case Management
Journal of Long Term Home Healthcare

Joan Quinn, RN, MSN, FAAN (JCM), F. Russell Kellogg, MD (JLTHHC)

Care Management Journals now conveniently combines two must-read publications in case management and home care. Published independently for seven years, Journal of Case Management reviews case management programs, procedures or systems, case studies, innovative ideas for professional development, helpful hints, and other issues common to this field.

It is complemented by the Journal of Long Term Home Healthcare, which investigates current issues and reports on programs and policy initiatives for the homebound elderly. Its forecasts developments and provides the reader with an enhanced perspective.

Clinical Scholars Review

The Journal of Doctoral Nursing Practice

Jennifer Smith, DrNP, MBA, MPH, Editor

Clinical Scholars Review is a biannual, peer-reviewed publication that presents articles on clinical excellence in the application of evidence-based practice in doctoral nursing. Articles discuss clinical practice and patient care; case studies; practice issues; ethical dilemmas, legal issues, and business practices; and innovative methods of teaching and evaluating advanced practice.

As an innovative feature, students in DNP programs will be asked to contribute original articles and serve as part of the review team for student submissions. This journal aims to support the advancement of the doctoral practice of nursing.
