The Journal of Perinatal Education
The Official Journal of Lamaze® International

As Publisher, we provide services in addition to the printed version of the journal in which your paper is scheduled to appear. We can negotiate foreign and translation rights, authorize reproductions (including electronic), reprinting, and microfilm editions. Under the 1978 Copyright Law all such activities are controlled by the need to obtain written permission from the copyright holder for every individual article involved. It is therefore in the interest of maximum diffusion of information for the issue to be registered under a single copyright. For this reason, we ask that contributors transfer the copyright of their papers by signing the form below under A, B, or C, as appropriate, and submitting it online with their manuscript submission or sending it to The Journal of Perinatal Education's representative at Springer Publishing Company (see contact information on page 2).

TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Article Title

Written By

The undersigned author(s) transfers all copyright ownership of the article [title of article] to Lamaze International, in the event that the article is published in The Journal of Perinatal Education. This transfer of copyright includes, but is not limited to, the worldwide rights to any and all forms of publication now known or hereafter developed, including all forms of print and electronic media. The undersigned author(s) warrants and represents that the article is original, is not under consideration by another journal, has not been published previously, and contains no matter that is libelous, unlawful, or that infringes upon another copyright.
